

Holiday Swap announces Free Accommodation stays for Veterans around the World

Holiday Swap, the accommodation home exchange platform available in 184 countries, has announced it is allowing Veterans around the World to stay for free.

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, September 13, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Already known for its generous giveaways in travel, ranging from free flights and air miles to free homestays, Holiday Swap has now announced that Veterans from all around the World can use the Holiday Swap to stay for free.

Founded by James Asquith, the Guinness World record holder for being the youngest person to travel to every country in the World, Holiday Swap has grown quickly to allow users to travel for cheaper, by swapping their homes with other like-minded users. Asquith said, "Our rapid growth has seen users saving more money for flights and experiences, rather than a place to sleep at night, and we want to continue to build on giving back to our community through inspiring travel."

"By disrupting travel, and making it cheaper for all of us, we aim to inspire people around the world to travel more and save them money. Every initiative we have builds on this, and that's why we are delighted to offer free swaps of accommodation to Veterans around the world by using the code "Veteran" on our platform when signing up for free. I was always told by many people how they wish they had more money to travel, and Holiday Swap allows us all to do this, through our free sharing platform" said Asquith.

Even if you are not a Veteran, using Holiday Swap allows you to exchange places for just $1 a bed a night, with no subscription fees.

After winning a Silver Award at the Best New Mobile App awards earlier this year, Holiday Swap has continued to grow into not only a platform for millennials but one that is commonly used by all demographics looking for anything from a room to a villa to swap with across the World.

Swap your room or home in 184 countries around the world

Asquith is also giving away all his airmiles on the 23rd of September, enough to fly around the Globe up to three times. He's promoting this initiative on his Instagram page.

The Holiday Swap app is free to download on the App Store and the Google PlayStore.
