

Brooklyn-based Printmaker Launches Limited Edition Clutch at New York Denim Days

Clockworks Press™ Creates Unique "Printmaking on Denim" as Portable Pieces of Original Art

BROOKLYN, NY, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Clockworks Press, a Brooklyn-based brand that combines contemporary design and sustainability to create unique, eco-friendly printed denim garments and accessories, is pleased to announce the launch of its limited edition Denim Clutch.

Limited to only 100 bags in total, Clockworks Press will release 50 bags at the 2nd annual NY Denim Days on September 22 and 23 during its collaboration with Tonello, Officina 39+, and De Ver Azul at the Metropolitan Pavilion. The remaining 50 will be released online September 24 through the company's online store.

Each piece is individually designed and printed by Clockworks' founder Holly E. Brown, a Brooklyn-based artist, art teacher and printmaker with over two decades of experience. Each bag will have one of three separate designs that are hand numbered and signed by Ms. Brown.

The Denim Clutch was created as a portable piece of original art produced using 100% repurposed denim with an organic cotton lining and dust cover. Clockworks Press is committed to sustainable, Eco-friendly practices including the use of recycled denim and pigments produced using textile waste. For The Denim Clutch, Clockworks Press worked with Earwings and Park Avenue Trimming to establish full manufacturing in the heart of Manhattan's Garment District. Clockworks Press is pleased to be a part of the Made in NYC family.

About Clockworks Press

Clockworks Press™ was founded in 2016 by Brooklyn-based artist and printmaker Holly E. Brown. Ms. Brown's graphic prints and drawings are inspired by architecture, and balance the rhythm between the rawness of reality and the abstract. Through her dynamic compositions Ms. Brown's work evokes a precise structure and control of the urban environment. Using a reductive approach to collagraph printmaking she juxtaposes a positive and negative environment where space, form, and perspective are carefully interwoven.

Ms. Brown received a B.F.A. from Syracuse University and an M.A. from Brooklyn College. Her solo exhibition "Recente Werken" at Ray Brandstore, a denim boutique in Delft (2016) debuted her work in the Netherlands and sparked her strong interest in working with repurposed denim and creating a more sustainable printmaking practice.

She has exhibited in several group shows throughout the United States and Europe. Ms. Brown was an Artist-in-Residence at Grafische Werkplaats, The Hague (2016) and The Cooper Union, NYC (2005).

Ms. Brown's prints can be found in the permanent collections of The Library of Congress, Yale University and Princeton University among others. She collaborated with Pulitzer Prize-winning poet Charles Simic on the portfolios "The Pieces of the Clock Lie Scattered" and "Three Poems." Ms. Brown currently splits her time between Brooklyn and The Hague.

In addition to running Clockworks Press, Ms. Brown has been a full-time art teacher at the Convent of the Sacred Heart for 18 years and teaches printmaking workshops at Atelier Indrukwekkend in Delft, Netherlands. For more information visit www.clockworkspressco.com and follow on Instagram at @clockworkspress.

Holly E. Brown
Clockworks Press
646-325-5399
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases. © 1995-2018 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.