

Allentown Charter School Becomes PIAA Member

Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown has been approved for PIAA membership.

ALLENTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown will soon be offering a variety of competitive sports for students. The Lehigh Valley charter school has recently been approved for PIAA membership.

Executive Education Charter School in Allentown is about to begin offering high school sports for students.

PIAA, or the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletics Association, governs high school sports in the state. As a new member, high school students at EEACS can play sports competitively against other public, private, and charter schools within PIAA District 11 and in related tournaments and play-offs.

"With the completion of our new gymnasium, we are excited to offer students robust athletic opportunities," says Mark "Duke" Wagner, athletic director at EEACS.

The school will begin its 2018-2019 athletics season by offering boys varsity basketball and wrestling. Schedules for games and events are currently in progress.
