

Future Energy Africa 2018 Announces Partnership with Global Women Petroleum & Energy Club

Developing global capability, people and local content in Africa Oil & Gas

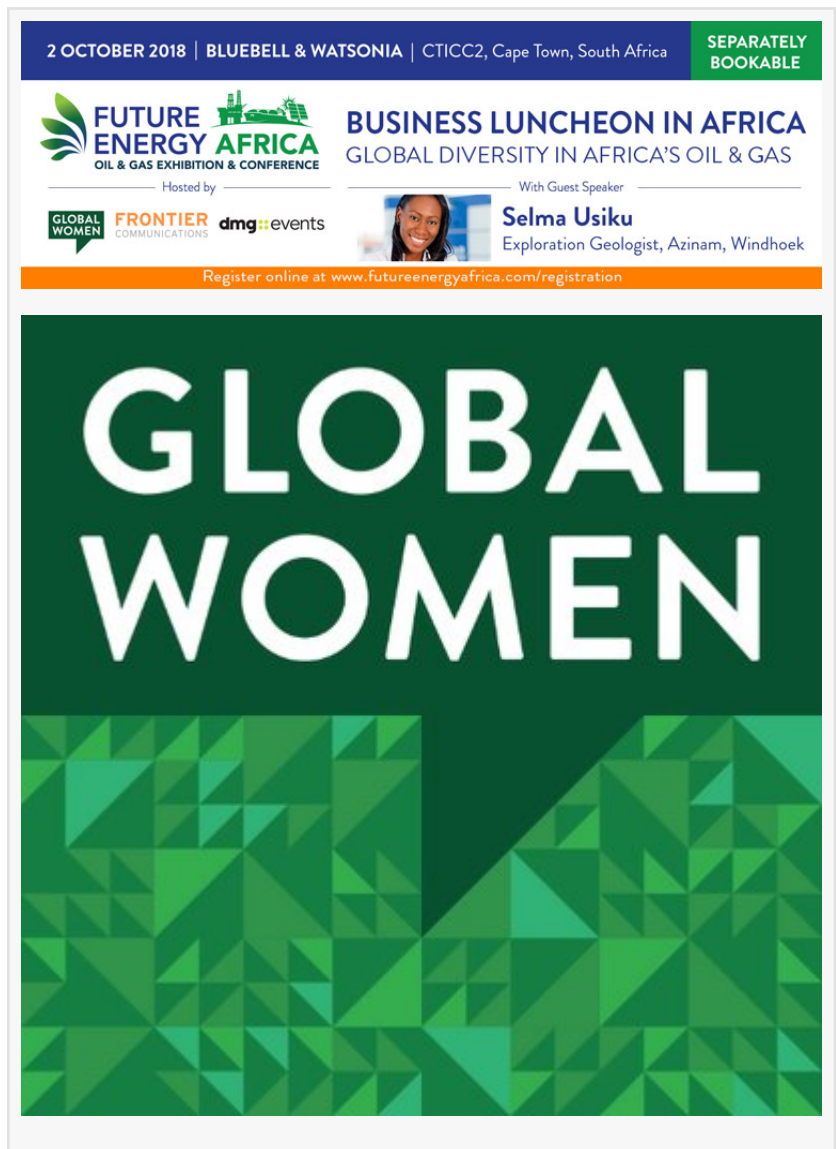

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA, September 18, 2018 / EINPresswire.com/ -- The Future Energy Africa Oil & Gas Exhibition & Conference 2018 announces a strategic partnership with the Global Women Petroleum & Energy Club at its inaugural exhibition & conference in Cape Town and will co-host the Business Luncheon in Africa during the 3-day event. The Luncheon will take place on Tuesday 2 October 2018 at CTICC 2, Cape Town, South Africa.

During the luncheon, Selma Usiku of Azinam will be presented with the Global Women Petroleum & Energy Club Award for Excellence in Africa 2018 to acknowledge her achievements in geoscience on the Continent and more specifically in Namibia.

Enabling new business partnerships and diverse networking opportunities within the continent, the Business Luncheon in Africa Luncheon, co-located at the Future Energy Africa Exhibition & Conference will take place on Tuesday 2 October 2018 at Bluebell & Watsonia, CTICC 2, Cape Town, South Africa.

Created to recognise, reward and address diversity, knowledge and opportunity within the industry the Business Luncheon in Africa will offer participants a casual, yet professional platform to network and share business & trade experiences. This event feature is aimed at championing thought-leadership, progress and development across the energy landscape, both regionally as well as internationally.
