

What Did Country Chart-Topper Richard Lynch Do When A DJ Asked Him To "Pray On The Radio"?

On September 24, 2018, the country artist will release his new single, "Pray On The Radio." It will premiere this Saturday on KSSL 94.1 FM in Lubbock, TX.

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, September 21, 2018 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Waynesville, OH resident and country chart-topper Richard Lynch is known for his honest and authentic delivery of his traditional brand of country music. His voice can be heard singing songs by some of the best tunesmiths in the business, like Trent Tomlinson, Billy Yates and JK Nick Nichols. For his new single, the self-penned "Pray On The Radio," Lynch found inspiration in the most unusual and unexpected way:

"Pray On The Radio" drops on September 24th

"This song is truly inspirational," says Lynch. "I was traveling down the highway with my wife Donna and speaking to a DJ on the radio, for an interview. After talking for awhile, he suddenly said, 'would you mind praying with me on the radio?' That was indeed a first, and I suddenly found myself with a head and heart full of lyrics."
