

Granola Butter®, the World's First Spreadable Granola, Wins Best of Los Angeles Award, "Best New Healthy Snack-2018"

Sweeping the nation with its wholesome ingredients, delicious taste, and nutritional benefits, health aficionados have declared this spread a winner.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2018 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Granola Butter®, the world's first spreadable granola, has won the Best of Los Angeles Award for "Best New Healthy Snack-2018", announces Aurora DeRose, award coordinator for the Best of Los Angeles Award community.

"At Kween[™], we use the highest quality nutrient-rich ingredients— and do away with artificial flavors, sweeteners, and preservatives," Ali Bonar, one of Granola Butter's founders expresses. "Our product is gluten-free, non GMO, nut-free (contains coconut) and contains no refined sugars. We ensure each jar receives the royal treatment it deserves."

Power packed with goodness, one serving of the original variety butter contains 4g of protein, while their grass-fed collagen variety contains 7g—not to mention a surge of fiber from golden flax and under 3 grams of sugar.

"Through intuitive eating, I re-introduced nuts into my diet (something I had heavily restricted for years)," Bonar continues. "While delicious, all the nuts left me feeling weighed down and digestively taxed. I searched high and low for a healthy and delicious nut-free spread, but couldn't find anything. It was then that I decided to create my own, and Kween Granola Butter was born."

BevNet CMO & Taste Radio Host, @BevNetMike says, "This tastes insane!"

@Realfoodology declares, "Tastes like an oatmeal cookie."

And, Ellie Conley, Spoon University's Associate Editor cheers, "Liquid Teddy Grahams!"

Celebrating the best people, places and things in Los Angeles with a slogan "No Ads. No B.S. Only the Best," the Best of Los Angeles Award community, now consists of over 4,000 professional members living and working in Southern California. "We're proud to include Granola Butter within our BoLAA family," DeRose applauds.

"Kween Foods isn't just a company, it's a community brimming with self-love and body positivity," Bonar concludes. "Diets don't work— you look your best when you feel your best, no matter what size that is. At Kween, we want you to love yourself and live your best life — after all, we only get one, people."
