

Shreveport Dentist Now Offering IV Sedation For Patients Who Are Scared of The Dentist

Dr. Ben Kacos is now offering an enhanced level of sedation for patients who would like to be sedated during their dental visit.

SHREVEPORT , LA, UNITED STATES, September 26, 2018 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Believe it or not, around 40 Million Americans are afraid to go to the Dentist because they believe dental treatments will be painful. While it's true that some dental procedures can cause discomfort, modern science has created a solution to help patients with fear and anxiety to cooperate with dental treatments. This is known as Sedation Dentistry.

Shreveport Dentist, Dr. Ben Kacos

Most procedures that require drilling or extraction may not require sedation. Although depending on your comfort level, sedation is an option for root canal treatment, extraction, scaling and root planing, tooth trimming, and implant placement. The below are considerations for use of sedation in some dental procedures:

“

We are one of the only dental offices in Shreveport offering IV Sedation to our patients. Our team is committed to your complete comfort and both mentally and physically.”

Dr. Ben Kacos

- Fear and anxiety issues
- Traumatic previous dental experience
- Lack of response or allergy to local anesthesia
- Sensitive gag reflexes
