

RedConnect Comes To London

Leading global compliance and business intelligence firm launches the RedConnect event on 25th October in London

LONDON, UNITED_KINGDOM, September 23, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ --

LONDON 2018: Leading global compliance series RedConnect, presented by business intelligence and technology firm The Red Flag Group® is launching in London on the 25th October. The day will centre around accelerating business growth by managing risk effectively. Held in the City of London Club, the event will bring together senior industry leaders across technology and compliance, to discuss challenges, case studies and sector learnings.

The event marks the first time that The Red Flag Group has united its extensive network in London — enabling attendees to benchmark their compliance and risk programmes with peers from respected and world-leading companies. RedConnect London has the approval of the Compliance Certification Board (CCB)® with up to 4.8 CCB Continuing Education Units awarded for attendance.

Topics covered at RedConnect London will include optimising a supply chain risk management programme, managing whistleblower cases and effectively training employees in compliance and risk management across a global organisation.

“The Red Flag Group is dedicated to helping our clients make Better Decisions about selecting their third parties. To that end, we are delighted to be running a unique series of event for our clients. Hosted by our CEO and Founder, Scott Lane, the theme of the event will be how to use effective risk management to grow your business. The session will include real-life examples and interaction with your peers.”

The RedConnect series is targeted towards senior level compliance and risk professionals looking to improve their programmes, network with peers and find solutions to current-day compliance challenges. It is a global series of exclusive events with over 30 attendees from Fortune 500 companies. Drawing on the expertise of The Red Flag Group, each event offers insights from the forefront of compliance intelligence and risk management.

Places at RedConnect London are complementary and interested parties can find out more information on the event’s dedicated website.
