Florida Indie Author Wins International Writing Contest

ORANGE PARK, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, September 24, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Author Melanie S. Pronia has been awarded the Grand Prize position in the 2018 Top Female Writers Contest, presented by The Authors Show!

Pronia, an indie author who is self-published through her own company, M.S.Productions, has taken grand prize with her novel, Descent. She is the author of six published books, both fiction and non-fiction, with many future books to come. Married to fellow novelist John Maycumber, author of Propinquity, Melanie is the mother of two sons and works a day job. She holds a state license that allows her to sell cemetery spaces, and inter decedents. Her next book, At Death's Door, is an inside look into the not always honest or sincere Death Care Industry.

I am just a schizophrenic who has harvested my mental abnormalities and turned them into novels.”

M.S. Pronia

Descent, which is about a mother who believe a worm in eating out her brains and directing her to kill herself, has received five star ratings and excellent reviews.

Melanie's other novels fall into the Horror/Paranormal/Romance category. Pronia efficiently straddles different genres and enjoys pushing the envelope.

In, Five Sisters, you'll fall in love with Martie and her girls as they restore the haunted Willcraft Manor, beware, they are Witches, but not nearly as wicked as the ghost of Lucien Willcraft.

Journey of Souls, Pronia's debut novel is the story of Justine Ramsey, a gifted psychic who's just earned her degree in parapsychology. She's more afraid of her feelings for Patrick than she is the ghosts.

Sarah Windsor is not a lady you want to mess with. A psychic who is haunted by ghosts of abused children, she's killed many people, without ever raising a pretty finger. Check out, Lillian Lake, and fall in love.

Strange Girls, inspired by true stories, is not for the faint of heart. There are 13 stories that will captivate, disturb, upset and amaze you. These are American girls. Maybe one of them is your neighbor.
