What happens when the lines are blurred, and human obsessions attract the unnatural?

Ghost Box is a thriller/drama about Eve, young independent woman, turns to the paranormal to contact her recently deceased mother. With the help of her loyal co-worker and modern technology, she attempts to communicate with the spirit-world. Without considering the consequences, her journey spirals into a macabre experience she will never forget.

The merging of digital technology and advancements in science has opened doors to spiritual connections and provides some explanations of paranormal phenomena.

How far would you go to make that connection?

Feeling paranormally curious?

Ghost Box was filmed in Chicago, IL using local cast and crew.

"It's an honor to have Ghost Box make its Chicago premiere. Ghost Box was labor of love that took six days to film and over a lifetime to make it a realization." – Ben David Garza, Executive Producer
