

Patricia Chalkley to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

SANDSTON, VIRGINIA, UNITED STATES, September 26, 2018 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Cosmetics is a multi-billion dollar industry that has impacted women all over the world. Although it is a highly competitive industry there are an enormous amount of companies that have continued to stand out for their superior products and outstanding service. This is particularly true when there are top- notch people that represent them and add value that is unparalleled.

Patricia Chalkley is a retired worker from the Virginia Department of Transportation and an exceptional Full time Avon representative for over thirty plus years.

"It's an honor to represent Avon because they epitomize high quality and vigorously test their products before releasing them," says Patricia.

"Avon is a compassionate company that passionately supports equality of women. In addition to being cruelty free, Avon advocates tirelessly against breast cancer and domestic violence with the Avon Breast Cancer Crusade and Speak out Against Domestic Violence campaigns. They wholeheartedly represent women's empowerment."

With a superior line of cosmetics Avon has been setting the trend in makeup and skin care for well over a century. Their line of novelty cutting edge products such as fragrances, jewelry, fashion, and accessories, has stood for natural beauty, advancement, and is deeply ingrained in value and merit.

"I still have many of the same clients for over thirty years who have faith in me and the products I personally suggest works best for them," says Patricia. "My skills have evolved over the years and representing Avon has taught me to work exceptionally well in training many new up and coming representatives."

The company offers job opportunities for women across the United States, Puerto Rico, and Canada with independent sales representatives acquiring high earning potential to effectively support themselves and their families.

"Working for Avon offers the ideal flexibility for my schedule where I can be my own boss and set my schedule," says Patricia. "It also provides me the amazing opportunity to meet new people and find customers in so many social settings and since Avon is such a top-rated product its quality speaks for itself."

Cosmetics such as Avon boosts a woman confidence and when a woman is feeling particularly disheartened and insecure their spirits are uplifted and they become more self-assured. Avon also sells superior health and wellness products like supplements with the highest quality source non-GMO ingredients. Their Skin so soft line is one of their top-rated products with an epic following for many years.

With colorful, vibrant brochures Avon makes it fun and easy to order online. On their website they also provide useful, informative videos on how to apply makeup including contour and highlighting, toning your neck, and the secret to acquiring radiant, youthful skin.

"Working for Avon is an immensely gratifying career," says Patricia. "It brings me so much indescribable joy to be able to provide my customers with superior products that will bring them so much happiness for many years to come."

CUTV News Radio will feature Patricia Chalkley in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on Friday September 28th at 1 p. m. EST.
