

Social Media Co-Op Launches to Help L.A. Moms Love Work and Life

Social Media Co-Op launches to serve L.A. mom business owners and entrepreneurs; by helping fund and save money for branding, marketing and management services

SANTA MONICA, CA, UNITED STATES, September 26, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Social Media Co-Op Sponsor Recruiting for Good has been funding 'Our Moms Work' community service and offering no cost career mentoring services, since October 2017; and will help fund and offset the cost of social media for Co-Op members.

According to Recruiting for Good Founder, Carlos Cymerman, "Working moms wear so many hats, and have more responsibilities than ever before. We care about the quality of life for working moms and look forward to helping them save money and time managing social media for good."

Benefits and Purpose of Social Media Co-Op

Mission of the co-op is to help fund and offset the cost of social media services and management, so that L.A. mom business owners, and entrepreneurs can;

1. Save money on branding, community building, and marketing.
2. Focus time and effort on money making activities (delivering services, or selling products).
3. Enjoy time off and spend quality time away from work (fun time with family and friends often).

We're creating a fun intentional Social Media Co-Op for like-minded working moms. Join us to love work and life.”

Carlos Cymerman, Founder & Advocate for Our Moms Work

The Social Media Co-Op is for like-minded mom entrepreneurs who have businesses that make a difference (or that give back to community). Moms live in L.A., and have been running a business for at least one year or more (online or offline).

Carlos Cymerman, adds, "Co-Op Members share 'Our Moms Work' values, we participate and collaborate to benefit from living and enjoying life fully. We develop personal and meaningful relationships with Co-Op members."
