

Miami Attorney Jack Hickey Secures $4.5M Car Accident Verdict for 89-Year-Old Woman

The victim, 89-year-old Maria Deposada, was riding as a passenger in her daughter's car when the vehicle was broadsided.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, USA, September 27, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- John H. (Jack) Hickey, founder of Hickey Law Firm of Miami, Florida, received a $4.5 million jury verdict on behalf of the victim of what eventually turned out to be a fatal car crash. The victim, 89-year-old Maria Deposada, was riding as a passenger in her daughter's car when the vehicle was broadsided. Deposada filed a personal injury lawsuit against Pernod Ricard, the multinational liquor company. An intern for Pernod Ricard was driving the car that crashed into Deposada's. Pernod admitted liability for the crash, but claimed that it was not responsible for Deposada's post-crash symptoms.

“She went from praying every single day of her life before she went to bed to not praying at all. She went from listening to the radio all day every day to not wanting to hear any of it.”

John H. (Jack) Hickey

Hickey showcased a clear difference from Deposada before the crash, where she was known as the "Energizer Bunny" due to her love of life and travel, to after the crash, where she rarely left the house. "She went from praying every single day of her life before she went to bed to not praying at all," Hickey said. "She went from listening to the radio all day every day to not wanting to hear any of it. She went from happy to sad." The jury awarded Deposada's estate $4.5 million.
