Thomas Dunlap, Founding Partner

Ms. Miller says “It is so hard to choose the right lawyer. Most people do not even know where to start. My advice is to always choose an attorney who only practices in estate planning. Then find one that makes you feel comfortable. I try to make my clients feel comfortable by sharing what I have learned through the years personally and professionally. Often it is through that interaction that helps guide clients to make the right decisions for themselves.” She also added “My Father told me that I should find my passion and do it for a living because you spend a lot of your time working. I am pleased to say I have found my passion. Not just the law but specifically in estate planning. I truly enjoy working with my clients and love getting to know them on a more personal level.”
