

Smarter Business Shortlisted as TPI of the Year at the Energy Awards

HAYWARDS HEATH, WEST SUSSEX, UNITED KINGDOM, October 1, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Business energy broker Smarter Business are thrilled to have been announced as a 2018 Energy Awards finalist in the "Third Party Intermediary (TPI) of the Year (Broker) – Over 50 employees" category.

Taking place on 5 December at London Hilton, Park Lane, The Energy Awards will bring together an audience of over 500 industry heavyweights to recognise and celebrate the very best achievements in the industry.

Event Executive Mike Burnage says: "This year the quantity and quality of entries was outstanding, so being shortlisted is a great achievement, and a testament to the entrant's success in the last 12 months."

Why was Smarter Business shortlisted?

It's an honour to be recognised as one of the UK's top TPIs. Through our industry expertise and excellent customer services levels, we aim to be the obvious choice for suppliers and consumers alike."

Tyler Trenam, Marketing Manager

Smarter Business are one of the UK's leading independent consultancies, ranked by Cornwall Insights as one of the UK's Top 6 Energy Brokers.

The company was the first TPI (and it still one of the few) to be awarded Total Gas & Power's (TGP's) Platinum Compliance Accreditation; a reflection that Smarter Business has been able to maintain an industry-leading level of quality and compliance over a given period. The targets are set at a demanding level, which means that a broker needs to show a real ongoing commitment to compliance excellence to meet them. Over the last year, Smarter Business' sales have been regularly and rigorously reviewed by TGP and their compliance team, resulting in the awarding of Platinum Compliance status.

Smarter Business leads the market in using innovative technology to stay ahead of the curve, offering proprietary energy management to its clients:

Dynamic, online energy measurement with our secure and simple Dataview dashboard, which gives Smarter Business customers real-time data to help them get the most out of their energy contracts.

OpenviewSM– energy procurement and management software platform for our larger clients. This unique platform provides complete control over energy contracts, future energy contract prices, tendering, and the company's entire energy portfolio.

On being shortlisted as TPI of the Year, Smarter Business Marketing Manager Tyler Trenam says: "It's an honour to be recognised as one of the UK's top TPIs. Through our industry expertise and excellent customer services levels, we aim to be the obvious choice for suppliers and consumers alike. We've worked hard to earn our customers' loyalty by providing the highest standard of service and improving their profitability, and we're proud to be formally recognised for these efforts as a finalist in the Energy Awards. We look forward to the announcement of the winner in December!"
