

Premier performance of 'David: The King of Jerusalem' at Charis Bible College on November 2 only

The performance showtime, as well as group and general ticketing information, is available at www.thekingofjerusalem.com.

WOODLAND PARK, CO, UNITED STATES, October 9, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Andrew Wommack Ministries, in partnership with 7m Ventures, Inc., is premiering "David: The King of Jerusalem"—a hero for all ages. This new musical is written by Robert and Elizabeth Muren, directors of Charis Bible College's Creative Arts School. Elizabeth Muren co-directs the production with Adam Stone, the school's coordinator. The musical features a cast of over fifty members, from both Charis Bible College and The Holy Land Experience in Orlando, Florida, where Elizabeth also serves as creative director.

The Murens have co-written and produced two previous musicals held at Charis Bible College: "God with Us" and "The Heart of Christmas," both performed annually. "David: The King of Jerusalem," is told from the perspective of an aging King David and recounts, through a series of dreamscapes, David's search for a successor to the throne. This family-friendly production takes the audience on a biblical journey complete with musical numbers, sword-fighting and background projections of Roman scenery that was filmed in Italy.
