In the unkind reality where people mock and humiliate others for their imperfections, two hearts meet and love changes them. Bart and Angela are two people who live with different challenges that caused them to believe that they would never be worthy of love.

Bart DeMarco, is known as "Stutter Boy," had battled with a severe stutter which effectively silenced him, while Angela Curcuru who came to America, from Sicily, at the age of 12, was bullied by the "girl clique" in junior high school and labeled; "Ugly Angela." It was fate which brought them together and helped each to find true beauty. And love finally begins.
