

Women's Energy Network North Texas October 2018 Luncheons in Fort Worth and Dallas Announced

Kelly Richmond to Speak at Women's Energy Network North Texas October 2018 Luncheon in Fort Worth and Advancial is Sponsoring a Networking Lunch in Dallas

DALLAS, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, October 9, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kelly Richmond will be the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of Women's Energy Network (WEN) – North Texas Chapter on Thursday, October 11, 2018, at the Fort Worth Petroleum Club, 777 Main St., 40th Floor. Ms. Richmond will be presenting on the topic entitled "2018 - Make a Different Mistake."

Kelly Richmond is currently the Asset Integrity Management Manager at Denbury Resources and has 13 years of upstream oil and gas experience at Denbury and Jacobs Engineering. Ms. Richmond began her career as a Mechanical Engineering consultant designing oil production facilities and has served in roles in Facilities Engineering, Project Management, Reservoir Engineering, and Operations Excellence.

Advancial is sponsoring a networking lunch meeting on behalf of the Women's Energy Network (WEN) – North Texas Chapter on Tuesday, October 23, 2018, at the Dallas Petroleum Club, 2200 Ross Ave., 39th Floor. There will be no speaker at this event.

Registration for both luncheon events will begin at 11:30 a.m. followed by the luncheon from noon-1:00 p.m. The Cost to attend the lunch in Fort Worth is $30 for members, and $45 non-members if paid in advance. Member and non-member registration the day of the event is $50, space permitting. There is no cost to attend the lunch in Dallas, but space is limited, so pre-registration is highly recommended.
