Or as Cellements simply introduces them “a series of products developed with both nature and human in mind.”

Our Pocket Concept is designed to fit into the trend of making your life easier and more fun. At the same time giving you a better health and quality of life.”

From an alcohol-free hand and screen spray, that is designed to keep you and your cellphone protected against any bacteria, to a natural insect repellent, an energy booster, a natural sleep aid, an antioxidant spray, and others, the BioPocket series of products are all Made in Sweden, a leading country in product development and banned GMOs.

The most popular among them seems to be the antibacterial formula of Biopocket handspray proven to be 99.99% capable of killing germs and is absolutely safe to use with no side effects. Unlike other products, its solution is alcohol-free and dermatologically tested to cause no skin dryness and irritation.

Our phones are dirtier than we think. They are in fact 18 times dirtier than the public restroom toilet flush and are most probably carrying fecal matters, showed a study conducted in UK, that suggested our phones exceeded the acceptable total viable bacterial count level.

Biopocket handspray is a portable handspray to fight off germs found in your hands and on your phone. The best part of this is that Cellements developed an app dedicated to reminding you when you need to clean your phone. The app is available for download in Google Play and App Store.

“Our Pocket Concept is designed to fit into the trend of making your life easier and more fun. At the same time giving you a better health and quality of life,” said Anders Karlsson, CEO & Founder of Cellements.
