The Thalians Holiday party and will donate $1 Million Dollars to Operation Mend

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, October 18, 2018
/EINPresswire.com/ -- THE THALIANS PLEDGE $1 MILLION TO UCLA OPERATION

MEND AND KICK OFF THE HOLIDAY SEASON WITH A PARTY AT BEL AIR COUNTRY CLUB CHAIRED BY PRESIDENT KIRA REED LORSCH

Special performances from Frank Stallone & Freda Payne

Beverly Hills Ca- For more than 60 years The Thalians have raised over 35 million dollars for mental health charities. Since 2011, The Thalians' main focus has been the well-being of America's heroes of UCLA Operation Mend, established to treat U.S. military men and women severely wounded during service in Iraq and Afghanistan. In 2014, The Thalians made a pledge of $1 million to support mental health programs for UCLA Operation Mend patients and their families. The Thalians are thrilled to have growing support and have renewed their pledge of another $1 million.

You can help support The Thalians: Hollywood For Mental Health and celebrate the Holiday season by joining them for their Hollywood Holiday Party at Bel Air Country Club December 1, 2018. The Thalians President and event chair Kira Reed Lorsch says:

“

I love that we are continuing to support Operation Mend at my alma mater UCLA. performances by Jimmy Carnelli Band with Special Guests Frank Stallone and Freda Payne. Santa will be there as well”

Kira Reed Lorsch , president of the Thalians

“I love that we are continuing to support Operation Mend at my alma mater UCLA.
