

Forging Cultural Bonds with Clearwater Community Volunteers Center

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, USA, October 18, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Sunday the 14th of October, the Clearwater Community Volunteers Center hosted National Multicultural Day with Caregivers Helping Hand, a Tampa Bay nonprofit that helps the elderly through volunteer work and charitable events. In observance of the national day, which was established to generate understanding and tolerance between different cultures around the world, nine different ethnic groups were highlighted in presentations of their respective cultural dances, music and clothing.

Entertainment began with a singing of the Star Spangled Banner followed by performances from the ethnic groups. From Columbian dancers to Chinese lion dancers and traditional African Kumba story telling, the event emphasized the heritage of nationalities the world over.

Lion Dancers entertained and delighted the crowd at Clearwater's National Multicultural Day celebration at the Osceola Courtyard in downtown Clearwater

“Displaying our diversity brings about tolerance between the various cultures around the world,” said Clemence Chevrot, Director of the Clearwater Community Volunteers Center. “This generates goodwill within our community that enables us to work together, just as humanitarian L. Ron Hubbard wrote, ‘Tolerance is a good cornerstone on which to build human relationships.’”
