BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, October 24, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Disability advocate, actress, writer and producer Teal Sherer is pleased to support NTI's (<http://www.nticentral.org>) efforts to provide job services to Americans and Veterans with Disabilities across America. The collaboration comes at a time when inclusion is being spotlighted in Hollywood as well as in the job force around the world, and both NTI and Sherer are hopeful the message will resonate with individuals with disabilities facing the hurdle of finding employment. Teal stated, "I know what it's like to be discriminated against in the search for a job, and it is my honor to support an organization that is helping change that. As a wheelchair user and advocate for the inclusion of people with disabilities, it made perfect sense to partner with NTI."

One in every five Americans has a disability, making NTI's services valuable to more than 60 million people across the nation. Michael Sanders, the Marketing Director of NTI stated, "Teal is one of the most prolific actresses throughout Hollywood. She has felt first-hand the issues individuals with disabilities face when attempting to gain employment. We are honored she is leveraging her voice to tell the disability community about our non-profit."

There is no question that Teal Sherer is hands down the most well-known actress in Hollywood today who uses a wheelchair for mobility. She has used a wheelchair since age 14 when she was in an auto accident that caused spinal cord injuries leading to her becoming paraplegic. First as an actress, and then as a writer and producer, Teal has entranced spectators on both stage and screen. Her credits include a supporting character in HBO's Emmy Award Winning "Warm Springs," the character Venom in the award-winning web series "The Guild," and portraying Diane in the Starz series "Survivor's Remorse." She starred as Catherine in "Proof" (winner of a Pulitzer Prize for Best Drama and a Tony Award for Best Play), and has performed alongside stars Dustin Hoffman, Annette Bening, James Cromwell, Rosario Dawson, and Richard Schiff.
