We are excited to have Guadalupe join our team and expand the success we have achieved to date. Some of us have had the opportunity to work with her and have great respect for her expertise”

Victor Sierra - CEO

“Torino continues to see attractive investment opportunities in Latin America and this move will further strengthen our existing investment banking capabilities and deepen the range of services we can offer our clients” said Victor Sierra, CEO of Torino Capital. “We are excited to have Guadalupe join our team and expand the success we have achieved to date. Some of us have had the opportunity to work with her and have great respect for her expertise and professionalism”.

Regarding her new position at Torino Capital, Guadalupe said: “I am thrilled to join an outstanding team at Torino. The firm has an extensive international network which will enable me to offer clients top-notch advice on the most complex cross-border transactions”.

The appointment follows the recent recruitment of financial structuring expert Jaime Rodriguez Beckmann, demonstrating the firm’s commitment to investing in professional talent.
