

Vancity Filmmaker Screening at the 2018 Director's Cut International Film Festival in Vancouver

Vancouver local, Pennan Brae wrote, produced, scored and starred in The Astronot, an award winning feature film drama set during the 1960's space race.

VANCOUVER, CANADA, October 24, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Astronot, currently on the film festival circuit, is screening at 2018 Director's Cut International Film Festival in Vancouver, BC. The feature film screens at Landmark Cinemas in New Westminster Sunday, October 28 at 7:30 PM. The film has already won dozens of awards worldwide and this is the premiere in its place of conception in Vancity. ☐☐

The film, a drama set during the space race of the 1960's, was written/scored/starring/co-produced by Pennan Brae (Vancouver, BC) and directed/co-produced by Tim Cash (Bend, OR). ☐☐

The film follows Daniel McKovsky, a young Oregonian who lost both his parents at a young age and whose only solace is his fascination with space travel and the cosmos beyond. One day at the age of 30, he meets outgoing postal worker, Sandy Allister who had just moved to Bend, Oregon from Cape Canaveral. This new inclusion into his otherwise lonely existence forces Daniel to confront his darkest fears of loss and emptiness which shall lead him towards becoming, The Astronot.☐☐The Astronot has already won accolades at various international film festivals in the USA, UK & Europe including Best Feature Film, Screenplay & Score. ☐☐

Pennan Brae's brand new album is also called, 'The Astronot' and it features 11 songs which serve as the film's soundtrack. The second single released in Canada is "Crashland" and the song is currently receiving airplay on Rock radio across the country. Another track off the album, "Walk With Me" was already released to radio in Canada, the UK & Europe and received airplay on over 200 stations. The album was recorded at Blue Light Studio in Vancouver with producer Kaj Falch-Nielsen, with additional sessions taking place in Los Angeles with composer/producer Eric Alexandrakis, renowned drummer Steve Ferrone and INXS bassist Garry Gary Beers.
