“The existing primary companies in Northern Nevada make up the backbone of our regional economy. They are responsible for approximately 50% of our jobs. This event provides an opportunity to the community to thank these companies and let them know we truly appreciate their investment, commitment to the region and their many contributions to our economic vitality,” said Mike Kazmierski, CEO of EDAWN.

“The recognition by EDAWN and the Nevada business community naming Elemental LED as Company of the Year-Large means the world to our team,” said Randy Holleschau, CEO of Elemental LED. “It's validation that we made the right choice in transitioning our headquarters and manufacturing operations to a region that acknowledges our contributions to our industry, local community and employees.”

“We want to thank EDAWN and the surrounding community for choosing to highlight our company in such a significant way,” said Chris Le Banc, President & COO of Elemental LED. “To be nominated and selected amongst all the outstanding companies in Reno – Amazon, Microsoft, Zazzle Inc., Patagonia, Server Technology, Panasonic Energy of North America to name a few – is a momentous occasion for our organization. We couldn’t be prouder.”
