StartUp City magazine has featured Paracosma as one of the leading VR startup companies in their October 2017 edition

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, October 26, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- San Francisco - 25 Oct 2018 - Paracosma Inc has been selected by StartUp City as one of the "15 Most Promising Virtual Reality Startups 2018" and is featured in "Paracosma Magic in Our Time Made Real" the cover story of the October 2018 StartUp City Magazine Virtual Reality Startups Special (<https://goo.gl/HEGLkD>).

"To help CTOs, CIOs and CEOs find the right virtual reality solution provider, a distinguished selection panel comprising of CEOs, CIOs, VCs, industry analysts, and the Startup City's editorial board has selected a list of VR Solution Providers that exhibit innovative technologies combined with cloud strategies.", explains StartUp City Managing Editor Kenneth Thomas. "We have considered the vendor's ability in building solutions and services that can effectively yet economically account for a productive virtualization, keeping in mind the factor of time-focused delivery."

"We are honored to be recognized for our achievements and to be selected among the '15 Most Promising Virtual Reality Startups 2018'," said Ken Ehrhart, Founder and CEO of Paracosma.

said Ken Ehrhart, Founder and CEO of Paracosma Inc.

"StartUp City has done a great job of not only acknowledging leading startups in the space, but also in highlighting leading investors enthusiastic about the potential of the sector."

The Virtual Reality Startups Special features articles by seven leading investors focused on VR discussing the opportunities they see ahead. "Perceived as the technology of the future, virtual reality is equipped to bequeath enhancements, and radically redefine business workflows by building a link between the real and digital world and amplifying real-life scenarios.", writes Mr.

Thomas. "The game-changing technology is making inroads in manufacturing, logistics, education, healthcare, and automotive sectors in addition to its prominence in the gaming and entertainment area."

As a venture capital investor since 2000, Mr. Ehrhart has witnessed the boom and bust of many technology cycles and sectors. “As the Founder and CEO of a VR startup,” he says, “it is exciting to move beyond the early hype around the potential of VR and mature to the point that both startups and investors are creating real long-term value in VR and AR.”
