

Boy Scouts of America Honor Future Leaders with the Clearwater Community Volunteers Center

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, USA, October 25, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Monday the 12th of November the Clearwater Community Volunteers (CCV) Center will host the Boy Scouts of America Troop 313 in their semi-annual Court of Honor, the formal recognition of the scouts. To honor the scouts' achievements in both community service and the enhancement of their practical survival skills the boys are called up to receive their respective badges and rank advancements. This will be the troop's second Court of Honor at the CCV Center. A standard Flag Ceremony and Pledge of Allegiance starts the Court of Honor before the lighting of 12 candles representing the 12 points of Scout Law. Later, the scouts are presented their badges and rank promotions are formally recognized before the troop and their proud parents.

"As Scout Master, I would say the most rewarding part of the job is when I see my Scouts come together as a patrol." said Chris Lumsden, Scout Master for Troop 313. "They can see for themselves that they can handle things on their own and it's a moment of pride for me when I see them realize that they can do it!"

Troop 313 has used the CCV Center as its home since the center first opened on March 24, 2018. Dylan Pires, Community Affairs Director for the Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization said, "As an Eagle Scout from Troop 313, I learned leadership skills and how to set a good example for others through actions for my community like humanitarian L. Ron Hubbard wrote,

"There are many people one influences. The influence can be good or it can be bad."

Troop 313 is open to boys of any faith, as is any troop. Boys in the Scouting program and encouraged to be faithful and loyal, as laid out in the Scout Oath and Law.
