- Opportunity to build influencer brand in UAE markets at an unbeatable investment

- Comprehensive solution in line with National Media Council guidelines

United Arab Emirates: Ajman Media City Free Zone launches a comprehensive Social Media Influencer Package to further expand their service offerings for entrepreneurs and SME's owners.

Sheikh Abdul Aziz bin Humaid Al Nuaimi, Chairman of Ajman Media City Free Zone said: "The bloggers and influencers will receive full support as our preferred customer in obtaining all the mandatory UAE National Media Council approvals to set up their entity.

UAE remains one of the fastest growing destination for the new entrepreneur breed of social media influencers. The federal government entity, National Media Council had introduced a new law which governs and issues the mandatory license for an individual, a personal brand or entity to operate in UAE as a "Social Media Influencer" and covers electronic publishing outlets, news websites, and on-demand printing. This includes especially the activities that happen online on social media platforms in the UAE."

"This new service is introduces to further boost the media industry and align with our commitment to facilitate entrepreneurs and media industry to flourish in UAE," Sheikh Abdul Aziz bin Humaid Al Nuaimi, Chairman of Ajman Media City Free Zone.

In another landmark decision Ajman Media City Free Zone has removed the mandatory requirement for the potential owners to visit the free zone office to set up a company.
