

CONSTANT TECHNOLOGIES, INC. IS THE COVER STORY ON COMMERCIAL INTEGRATOR'S OCTOBER ISSUE

Constant Technologies, Inc. is formally recognized by a leading trade publication for excellence in 24x7 operations center video wall design and integration.

NORTH KINGSTOWN, RI, UNITED STATES, October 29, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Constant Technologies, Inc. is featured on the cover of the October issue of Commercial Integrator (CI). Constant was contacted by Commercial Integrator to participate in the feature due to its unique position as a mission critical video wall integrator. Earlier this year, the trade publication recognized Constant as one of the fastest growing AV integration firms of 2018.

The in-depth cover story explores the concept of "mission critical" within the world of the audiovisual integration industry and how the definition has begun to expand. For over three decades, Constant has fine-tuned their expertise in complex, detail-oriented projects by focusing solely on operations center design and the mission critical market. Constant Technologies executives interviewed for the feature included Danny Sasseville, VP of Project Engineering; Stephen Sullivan, CTO; and Brad Righi, President.

As a systems integrator for mission critical 24x7 operations centers, we have spent decades honing our craft to deliver reliable and quality deployments for our clients across a variety of sectors.”

Brad Righi

Brad Righi, President of Constant Technologies, said of the feature: “Constant Technologies is honored to be recognized with a feature in Commercial Integrator. As a systems integrator for mission critical 24x7 operations centers, we have spent decades honing our craft to deliver reliable and quality deployments for our clients across a variety of sectors. We take pride in making complex projects simple for the end user.”
