

Middle School Students at Allentown Charter School Beginning Field Experience

A unique field experience program begins for eighth graders at Executive Education Academy Charter School.

ALLENTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, October 30, 2018 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Executive Education Academy Charter School is being lauded for its unique business education curriculum and the career opportunities it offers. One of those opportunities is eighth-grade field experience, which is allowing middle school students to experience the working world firsthand.

Executive Education Charter School in Allentown gives eight grade students career experience

Students choose a field of interest then pursue an internship experience with one of the Allentown charter school's numerous community partners throughout the Lehigh Valley. Students spend time with a mentor, log hours they're onsite, and complete an independent project about their experience.

Tiffany O'Brien, Chief Academic Officer

“Students love their field experience,” says Tiffany O'Brien, Chief Academic Officer. “This is their first real experience in the business world and they're fortunate to have a very hands-on role with a dedicated and experienced mentor.”

This experience, O'Brien adds, “helps these students select their academic track when they enter high school”.
