

FOCUS-BUSINESS: aviaticonscouts GmbH is one of Germany's Growth Champions

LICHTENFELS, BAVARIA, GERMANY, October 30, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- aviaticonscouts GmbH is one of the Growth Champions of the year 2019. This is the result of a study for which the news magazine Focus together with the data company Statista has identified the German companies with the highest sales growth.

Thomas Bulirsch, CEO and founder of aviaticonscouts GmbH, says about the pleasing performance: "We ranked 94th in the nationwide ranking of 500 companies. Our growth per year was around 70%. Because of our great team, this growth has become possible in the first place. Therefore, the award is a great recognition for their dedication and cooperation."

The top list of 500 growth champions lists companies having achieved particularly high percentage sales growth per year between 2014 and 2017. Both privately owned and listed companies were included. The companies must be independent (no subsidiaries, no branches), have their headquarters in Germany and have at least a turnover of 100,000 euros in 2014 and at least a turnover of 1.8 million euros in 2017. Statista has filtered out thousands of companies with above-average growth from more than 2 million commercial register entries. Many more were invited to apply for the 2019 Growth Championships. The companies listed in the Focus Top list receive the "Growth Champion 2019" award.
