CIPD Annual Conference & Exhibition 2018, 7-8 November 2018, Stand B96*

CODICOTE, HERFORDSHIRE, UK, October 30, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- HFX, leader in workforce management solutions for over 40 years and provider of cloud-based SaaS flexitime and workforce management solutions, is launching a new real time workforce costing and budgeting module within its 3D rostering solution at the CIPD Annual Conference.

“

The world of work is changing, and new thinking and systems are required to not only to facilitate this change but to deliver competitive advantage.”

Nick Whiteley

The powerful new module has been designed for workforce planners and will help them create rosters according to operational requirements, and enable them to keep within pre-defined budgets. HFX 3D Rostering provides real-time, instant costs for staff scheduling that enables faster, more accurate budgeting.

Nick Whiteley, CEO at HFX said; “HFX’s focus is to provide innovative, cost effective solutions to help all sizes of company to manage staff time transparently and fairly, both to ensure employee wellbeing and for business efficiency. The CIPD Conference provides a great platform for us to meet with HR professionals who have the task of balancing these two issues – and with ever increasing pressure on budgets.

“This latest module for workforce planning provides critical real-time data to help decision making, enabling planners and managers to immediately see the financial impact of changes in shifts and the variance against the budgets. It enables organisations to optimise their workforce deployment profitably and help them keep competitive.”

Nick Whiteley will also be presenting “Flexible working in the New World of Work” in the Technology and Innovation Arena, 2.45 – 3.15pm on day one of the event. He will explore how technology empowers HR departments in managing a range of flexible working options for staff.

“The world of work is changing, and new thinking and systems are required to not only to facilitate this change but to deliver competitive advantage. Our interactive session will demonstrate the transformative nature of technology within this new world,” said Whiteley. HFX’s solution offers a complete system for managing staff time, with options for capturing staff data that include EveryOneCloud, Cloud T &A, Cloud Access Control and Workforce Design, to support proactive staff rosters and shift plans. EveryOneCloud Telecheck is the company’s latest web-based innovation to help organisations manage attendance for remote or lone workers such as cleaning or service personnel.

The 71st CIPD Annual Conference and Exhibition, ‘Leading the People’, takes place in Manchester on 7-8th November, The event attracts over 500 attendees every year, offers expert-led conference sessions and dedicated content streams for HR professionals.
