It's Friday The 13th and the overly superstitious fishermen face the scariest monsters – the ones that lurk within their souls. The sky scattered with dark clouds and a misty fog hung over the ocean. Captain John Carl Thomason watched his crew unload the catch on the dock. He snaps as Remi, a short balding man mutters how things have changed around. He continues to mock him as he eats banana which everyone believes to be a bad luck on that very day. Captain Thomason and Remi's commotion continues until their hunch about Friday the 13th turns into a reality. How bad could the day get for them both and the rest of the crew? What is inside the dead man's mind?

The Festival will bring over hundreds of renowned national and international exhibitors together as it continues to become a model for other fairs across the country. Events and activities include the Street Fair, book signings, live music, workshops, and readings and discussions with notable authors from both, the U.S., and from around the world.
