

A Halloween Movie Night for a Safe Family Experience

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, USA, November 1, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On October 31, the Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization hosted a Halloween Movie Night for the community where youth were able to trick-or-treat in a safe, family-friendly environment. The event was held at the Osceola Courtyard on the corner of Fort Harrison Ave. and Drew Street. The evening featured a screening of Hotel Transylvania 3 and was free to the public. More than 400 children and parents attended.

Several non-profit organizations had booths and provided information about what they do for the community. This included Narconon Suncoast, Global Community Tennis, the Clearwater Community Learning Center and the Benevolution Foundation.

As guests arrived, they trick-or-treated at the Osceola Courtyard and through each of the Humanitarian Program Centers in Downtown Clearwater. The Scientology-supported Humanitarian Programs Centers are located on Fort Harrison Avenue and include the Florida chapters for United for Human Rights, The Way to Happiness Foundation, Foundation for a Drug-Free World, Criminon, the Citizen's Commission on Human Rights, the Scientology Volunteer Ministers as well as the Clearwater Community Volunteers Center.

The event had activities for kids including a bouncy house, face painting and carnival games. There was a costume contest where guests won a trophy for having the best costume, most classic costume, best dance and others.

When the sun set, guests settled down in the Courtyard for an outdoor showing of Hotel Transylvania 3.
