CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, USA, November 15, 2018 / EINPresswire.com/ -- On Friday December 7th, the Scientology Information Center will host a holiday concert with Joanie Sigal from Broadway and Beyond. Ms. Sigal will perform an eclectic mix of favorites from Broadway to blues with a selection of well-loved holiday favorites. Light refreshments will be served at 6:30pm, and the concert will start promptly at 7:00pm.

“Music is a universal language and the Holidays are especially a time when music brings people together with tunes everybody knows and loves,” said Ms. Sigal. “I’m really excited to share these songs with the audience as they are songs most people know. I’m pretty sure most will want to sing along.”

Ms. Sigal’s mother is a trained musician who played the organ, sang in choirs, directed the choir or some combination thereof at every military base they lived on, while her father was in the Air Force. When her dad retired to Hawaii, Ms. Sigal rekindled her love of acting and singing and immersed herself in theater. She was a featured performer with the Hawaii Performing Arts Company, the Honolulu Theatre for Youth and the University of Hawaii productions. She was also a featured player in the stage show "Paradise Found" which she performed in Honolulu for 2 years in the 70s.
