

Boy Scout Troop 313 Honor our Communities Future Leaders with the Clearwater Community Volunteers Center

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, USA, November 15, 2018 / EINPresswire.com/ -- On November 12th, Boy Scout Troop 313 held their semi-annual Court of Honor, a ceremony which recognizes the achievements of the Scouts over the last 6 months. The ceremony was held inside the Clearwater Community Volunteers Center with 55 attendees, who came to watch 13 Scouts receive their merit badges and rank advancements. This Court of Honor also featured a 100 year-old ceremony for an adult leader, who demonstrated expertise and dedication to the Boy Scouts, bestowing him with the distinguished Wood Badge.

Thirteen Scouts, including one adult leader, of Troop 313 received badges and rank promotions inside the Clearwater Community Volunteers Center.

“Being in the Boy Scouts you learn leadership skills so that you can lead other boys, no matter what rank you are. The best part about it is that you get to help the community and see your actions making it better so that people in it are happier and doing well,” said Andrew Lumsden, Troop 313’s Senior Patrol Leader.

The Court of Honor began with a Flag Ceremony and Pledge of Allegiance. Next, 12 candles, representing the 12 points of the Scout Law, were lit and the Law recited by the boys before the official ceremony began in which the Scouts and adult leaders received their badges and rank promotions.

“

The Boys Scouts of America teaches the boys practical skills that they can use to control their environment.”
Patricia Nemeth, Boy Scouts Troop 313’s Committee Chair

Patricia Nemeth, Boy Scouts Troop 313’s Committee Chair said, “Humanitarian L. Ron Hubbard once wrote, ‘Children can’t handle their environment and have no real resources. They need love and help to make it.’ The Boys Scouts of America teaches the boys practical skills that they can use to control their environment. It gives me the opportunity to work with them on mutual interests while being a good role model for them.”

Troop 313 has held their weekly troop meeting inside the Clearwater Community Volunteers Center since its opening on March 24th. The center provides the venue, catering, and equipment as a complimentary service to the Boy Scouts, as it does to all the non-profit groups that it works with.

For more information about the Clearwater Community Volunteers Center or Boys Scout Troop 313 please call Michael Soltero at (727) 316-5309 or email ccvcenter@ccvfl.org.

About the Clearwater Community Volunteers:

The Clearwater Community Volunteers have over 25 years of community service under their belt with over 150,000 families and children helped since their founding in 1992. Sponsored by the Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization, they stay true to their reputation of helping others with their new center located on the corner of Fort Harrison Avenue and Drew Street in downtown Clearwater.

Pat Harney
Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization
727-467-6860
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases. © 1995-2018 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.