

ReadyShipper X & Pitney Bowes Partner to Provide Merchants with a 3-Day Delivery Guarantee on Priority Mail

ReadyCloud CRM has partnered with Pitney Bowes to provide retailers with access to low shipping rates and services via their ReadyShipper X plugin.

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA, USA, November 19, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LOS ANGELES and NEW YORK and PHOENIX, ARIZONA – The holiday shopping season has arrived and is on course to set new records for ecommerce sales and total packages shipped from retailers to consumers. To help e-tailers control costs while managing seasonal demands, ReadyCloud CRM has announced the availability of a new 3-day delivery guarantee on qualified USPS® Priority Mail shipments made through the all-new ReadyShipper X interface (a premium shipping software plugin for ReadyCloud CRM) for Pitney Bowes Shipping APIs. If a Priority Mail shipment is not delivered in 3 days after a retailer sends it through the USPS, the retailer will receive a full refund on shipping costs. Full details of the program, which runs through December 31, 2018, can be found on the ReadyShipper X website.

ReadyCloud CRM has partnered with Pitney Bowes to provide retailers with seamless access to low shipping rates and services via their ReadyShipper X shipping software plugin. The partnership has already enabled hundreds of retailers to better manage their shipping needs.

“We hope this guarantee incentivizes more retailers to leverage ReadyShipper X for Pitney Bowes this holiday season to access competitive shipping rates while taking advantage of the benefits of our delivery guarantee,” said Rajeeb Mohapatra, Senior Vice President and General Manager, Shipping Solutions at Pitney Bowes.

As a leader in ecommerce shipping solutions, Pitney Bowes Complete Shipping API technology opens an important channel for online retailers to get their packages to customers in a timely manner during the holiday season.

“The USPS delivered more than 850 million packages during last holiday season. Those numbers are expected to rise significantly in 2018,” comments Michael Lazar, an Executive at ReadyCloud CRM. “We’re pleased to work with Pitney Bowes to offer retailers the peace of mind to know that they can be refunded for USPS Priority Mail packages that fail to arrive in three days when they use ReadyShipper X for Pitney Bowes.”
