

Cohen & Grigsby Supports Seventh Annual “Wills for Heroes” Event

NAPLES, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES,
November 20, 2018 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Business law firm Cohen & Grigsby will show its gratitude for veterans and other local “heroes” by participating in the seventh annual “Wills for Heroes” event on Saturday, December 1. The pro bono event will take place from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the office of Legal Aid Service of Collier County, located at 4436 Tamiami Trail East in Naples.

Legal Aid Service of Collier County, in partnership with members of the Trusts and Estates Section of the Collier County Bar Association and local attorneys will prepare simple wills, advance care directives and other basic estate planning instruments at no cost for veterans, reservists, first responders, and emergency personnel who do not currently have these documents.

“Cohen & Grigsby is honored to participate this year, and in every Wills for Heroes event. We are truly grateful for the opportunity to offer legal assistance to hundreds of veterans and first responders,” said Kelley Geraghty Price, partner, Cohen & Grigsby.

Attendees wishing to receive services at the Wills for Heroes event must be Florida residents with a military or service ID. VA cards and Forms DD-214 are acceptable. All qualified applicants are welcome; however, it is recommended that anyone seeking services register in advance by completing the registration form on Legal Aid’s website, <http://www.collierlegalaid.org/2018-wills-for-heroes/>, and emailing or delivering it to Legal Aid by no later than 3 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 27.

Preference will be given to qualified applicants who have registered in advance, as there are limited opportunities for these services. Tax planning and tax advice will not be provided during this special event.
