

Cohen & Grigsby Announces Firm Promotions

PITTSBURGH, PA, UNITED STATES, November 20, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Business law firm Cohen & Grigsby is pleased to announce that six attorneys have been promoted to directors, effective January 1, 2019.

We look forward to our continued growth with these talented leaders among the firm's director ranks."

Chris Carson

- S. Curt Anderson is a corporate attorney who concentrates his practice on negotiating and structuring business transactions, including leveraged buyouts, mergers and acquisitions, dispositions, equity financing and venture capital investments.

- Marshall P. Bender is a commercial litigation attorney with a broad range of experience acting as both defense counsel and plaintiff's counsel. His practice focuses on prosecuting commercial foreclosure actions, complex commercial arbitration proceedings, representing both commercial and residential property owners in a variety of landlord/tenant disputes, and defending against product liability claims.

- Lauren M. Crossett is an employee benefits attorney, who regularly assists clients with general employee benefits matters including regulatory compliance under PPACA (health care reform), the Internal Revenue Code and ERISA.

- Emilie B. Delo is a business lawyer, whose practice focuses primarily on commercial lending. She represents clients with various types of credit accommodations, including secured & unsecured loans and term and revolving credit facilities.

- Carsen N. Ruperto is a labor & employment attorney, who represents employers in all aspects of their relationships with their employees. She advises management teams on compliance with workplace laws, collective bargaining, unfair labor practices, union avoidance campaigns and strategies, and regulatory compliance issues.

- Matthew A. Weinbaum is a corporate attorney with extensive corporate experience, serving as legal counsel to various businesses, leadership and executive teams. He has regularly provided advice to clients in connection with all legal requirements, from the tactical (customer contracts) to the strategic (capital formation and acquisitions).

"We are proud to elevate this class of well-regarded and successful attorneys," said Chris Carson, president and CEO of Cohen & Grigsby. "We look forward to our continued growth with these talented leaders among the firm's director ranks."
