

Clutch Recognizes Zibtek For The Excellent Services They Are Providing To Their Clients

Clutch has recognized Zibtek as one of the best Node.js development company in the world and one of the best custom software development companies in India.

BENGALURU, KARNATAKA, INDIA, November 26, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Clutch was established in 2012 and has a database of various service providers across multiple industries, including web and custom software development services. They are the best and the leading independent third-party reviewer that assists companies in finding the right service provider. Clutch currently has reviews of 7,000+ B2B firms in more than 500 categories.

Clutch provides ratings of service providers in their database by taking independent feedback from their clients through one-on-one phone calls and then publishes the reviews and ratings that the service providers receive from their clients. These allow potential buyers seeking technology services like web and custom software development to read the detailed reviews that are given by current and past clients of the service providers so that they can make an informed buying decision.

Zibtek customers are extremely satisfied with their services, and they gave Zibtek excellent ratings and reviews. As a result, Zibtek is now rated among the "Top Software Developers in India." They are currently ranked number 6 on the list. A business consultant from the creative business resources sector gave the following review for Zibtek "Every project we give Zibtek is completed in a timely manner, which makes them a great partner."

Zibtek also ranked in the top 25 for Node.js developers in the world out of 995 firms considered. Zibtek is currently listed as number 12 on the list. The CEO of an IT company has given the following review for Zibtek, "They seemed genuinely excited to help us create all the products we envisioned."

These reviews are a clear indication that Zibtek is delivering an excellent service to their clients. Zibtek continues to grow and expand, but the priority of satisfying each and every customer, from small businesses to enterprises, remains the same.
