

Infinite Beauty shares its vision and philosophy for beauty

Upscale boutique and beauty brand Infinite Beauty uncovers its philosophy and vision for beauty and skin care.

NEW YORK , NEW YORK, USA, November 27, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- An upscale boutique and beauty brand, Infinite Beauty is dedicated to offering clients new and existing the most comprehensive skin treatment solutions available in addition to medical spa services and an unrivaled range of beauty and skin care products. The company aims, it says, to help each and every client find personalized skin care solutions by utilizing an optimal combination of facial treatments and beauty products, delivered in refined and relaxed surroundings, supported by standards of customer service which are second to none.

"In addition to our medical spa and beauty treatment services, we strive to create exceptional skin care products which benefit from rigorously maintained high standards, and offer our customers the results which they both want and deserve, each and every time," explains Infinite Beauty's vice president of operations, Eric Inbar.

"Our vision at Infinite Beauty," says Inbar, "is to create long-lasting customer relationships delivered via a true passion for revolutionary skin care and a commitment to the very latest beauty technology."

As a luxury skin care company, Infinite Beauty requires the ability to cater for and address a large variety of customer needs. "However," adds the brand's vice president of operations, "we're forever mindful that each individual client has a particular skin type, and all react differently to various key ingredients and treatments."

Therefore, according to the brand, it's almost impossible to find one truly effective treatment for all customers. "As such," adds Inbar, wrapping up, "our objective is to find and provide the perfect solution for each specific need of every individual client who walks through the doors of an Infinite Beauty spa location, from California to New York, and from Florida to Maryland."

In line with Infinite Beauty's commitment to customer care and satisfaction, the brand offers a range of VIP membership cards, application for each of which is free of charge and attracts no annual fee. Currently available Infinite Beauty VIP membership cards include the Infinite Beauty VIP Member Technology Card, Infinite Beauty VIP Member Black Card, Infinite Beauty VIP Member Diamond Card, Infinite Beauty VIP Member Platinum Card, Infinite Beauty VIP Member Gold Card, and Infinite Beauty Plus+ VIP Member Gold+ Card.
