

4th Annual Sight, Sound & Story: The Art of Cinematography Symposium Returns to NYC - Lineup UPDATE

An Evening Featuring In-Depth Conversations with Master Filmmakers Set for December 5th

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, November 28, 2018 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Manhattan Edit Workshop, the east coast leader in education for content creators, announces the return of "Sight, Sound & Story: The Art of Cinematography" on December 5th at the NYIT Auditorium Theater on Broadway. This year's event showcases some of the industry's leading cinematographers behind worldwide hit TV shows including "Game of Thrones," "Ray Donovan," and "Westworld"; pioneers of cinematic production on classics such as "Star Wars – Episode IV: A New Hope," "Tron," and "2001: A Space Odyssey"; and cinematographers that shot award-winning documentaries "Strong Island," "Finding 52," "Inventing Tomorrow," and "The Final Year." Additionally, attendees will have the opportunity to speak directly with top gear companies including our Platinum Sponsor

We are incredibly excited to host these conversations with such an amazing group of cinematographers.”
