

Groups Get Free Passes for 26th Annual Winter Wonderland in Downtown Clearwater

CLEARWATER, FL, US, November 29, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Clearwater Community Volunteers is offering free passes to Downtown Clearwater's 26th Annual Winter Wonderland to active military families, families benefiting from the Shriners Hospital for Children, Clearwater Police and Fire Departments, staff of American Power and Gas and foster families; guests will need to provide proper ID to receive the free pass for activities in the holiday village. Winter Wonderland's Grand Opening is on December 1st at 6:00pm on the corner of Fort Harrison Ave. and Drew Street. The event is sponsored by the Clearwater Community Volunteers (CCV) and the Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization.

Some children's non-profit organizations get free passes to Downtown Clearwater's 26th Annual Winter Wonderland and all of its activities. Winter Wonderland opens on December 1st at 6:00pm.

Children in the above groups are able to participate in the many activities including, cookie decorating with Mrs. Claus, visits with Santa and his elves, pet baby animals, ride ponies and the Winter Wonderland train, slide down the 20-foot slide, jump in Winter Wonderland's bouncy house and take a spin on the human gyroscope.

Every child should be able to have an amazing Holiday Season.”

“We are very happy to provide this service to these groups,” said Pam Ryan Anderson, Executive Director of the Clearwater Community Volunteers. “These groups provide so much for the community and this is our way to give back to them. Every child should be able to have an amazing Holiday Season.”

Clearwater's Winter Wonderland, opening December 1st, is also a food and toy drive for needy children and families. Visitors are asked to bring an unwrapped toy or non-perishable food item and put it in Santa's sleigh. All of the donations will be given to the Pinellas Sheriff's Police Athletic League to support families over the holidays.

Winter Wonderland will be open every day from 6pm to 9pm through December 22nd, except on Mondays and Tuesdays. Though admission is free, there is a small charge for some activities and the food items in the Hot Chocolate Shop.

About the Clearwater Community Volunteers

Clearwater Community Volunteers (CCV) is a non-profit, charitable organization made up entirely of volunteers and was founded by parishioners of the Church of Scientology in Clearwater. CCV produces the "Ginormous Easter Egg Hunt" in Coachman Park in Clearwater every spring, Fashions with Flair fundraiser fashion show and Winter Wonderland. CCV gets their inspiration from Scientology Founder L. Ron Hubbard's article, "Love and Help Children" in his book The Way to Happiness. CCV has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars over the past 25 years for charities such as Nourish to Flourish, Shriners Hospitals for Children Tampa, Boys and Girls Club of the Suncoast, Homeless Empowerment Program, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, the Police Athletic League and The Children's Home, Inc., the oldest orphanage in Tampa.
