

Lerner and Rowe Gives Back Sponsor the KaBoom! Playground Build

Lerner and Rowe Gives Back announce our sponsorship of the KaBoom! Playground Build for ARCH to replace their former playground that burned down this summer.

PHOENIX, ARIZONA, US, November 29, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lerner and Rowe Gives Back is pleased to announce our sponsorship of the KaBoom! Playground Build on Saturday, December 1, 2018, at the Arizona Recreation Center for the Handicapped (ARCH) located at 1550 W Colter St, Phoenix, AZ 85015. Construction of the playground will begin at 8am and wrap up around 2pm.

We are excited to partner with fellow volunteers to help provide a beautiful, new playground for ARCH after they lost their previous one to a fire this summer.

Throughout the 2017-18 grant cycle, Fiesta Bowl Charities partnered with KaBOOM! to provide two communities in the state of Arizona with brand new playgrounds constructed by the hands of hard-working, generous volunteers and community partners. Through their efforts, they have been able to provide a valuable source of activities and fun for more than 4,000 children.

Play provides children with the chance to not only create fond childhood memories, but also allows them to develop important physical, mental, and social skills they will need as they grow.”

Kevin Rowe

Personal injury attorney Kevin Rowe knows how important something as simple as a playground can be for a child. “The importance of play throughout childhood should never be overlooked. Play provides children with the chance to not only create fond childhood memories, but also allows them to develop important physical, mental, and social skills they will need as they grow.”

About The Arizona Recreation Center for the Handicapped

ARCH opened their doors on September 23rd, 1975, to address a need they observed in the community. Before ARCH, no local agency offered individuals with disabilities a place for socialization, therapeutic recreation, and rehabilitation programs.

ARCH operates under the ideal that people with disabilities should be given every opportunity possible to be able to develop themselves, both physically and mentally, to the full extent of their potential. ARCH has established itself as the leading provider of recreation and socialization programs and services throughout the Phoenix metro area for adults and children with disabilities.
