

HEALTHCARE EXPERT LAUNCHES FIRST-OF-ITS KIND STARTUP TO TRANSFORM U.S. HEALTH CARE

Industry Expert Launches Health Care Transformation To Solve Complex Healthcare Challenges for Employers, Providers, and Consumers

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, December 3, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Healthcare industry expert Meghan Nechrebecki, MSPH has launched Health Care Transformation, the first company of its kind aimed at reducing healthcare costs and improving health across the U.S.

Named one of the top healthcare startups to watch in 2019 by UpJourney, Health Care Transformation (<https://caretransformation.net>) injects population health and well-being principles and methodologies into the provider and employer space in order to succeed in the future of value-based care.

"Healthcare costs in the U.S. have continued to rise at an unsustainable rate with us now spending over $10,000 per capita annually. The drivers of these healthcare costs are clear, and it is with our proven, results-driven population health methodologies that we can partner with provider and employer organizations to implement and sustain results in healthcare cost-reduction and health improvement." –Meghan Nechrebecki, Founder and CEO of Health Care Transformation

The cost of health care in the U.S. has become unsustainable and as employers and providers are taking action, Health Care Transformation aims to support and guide them in effectively using their resources to achieve quantifiable results. Using a cost-effective train-the-trainer approach, Meghan and her team have created a uniquely sustainable and comprehensive approach to reducing healthcare costs and improving health while also achieving goals of employee well-being, talent retention, and customer success. Health Care Transformation is built on a backbone of analytics, lean operational improvements, and results-oriented project management. The company is now offering free population health and employee well-being audits to health systems and employers across the country.

Health Care Transformation offers insightful and timely material on the company's website (<https://caretransformation.net/>) and on their social media platforms. Female-founder Nechrebecki also speaks at conferences and events across the country and advocates for policy developments to develop a streamlined and more affordable health system for consumers.

Meghan Nechrebecki is a healthcare administration expert who has been solving complex systemic healthcare challenges for close to a decade. Using the Health Care Transformation philosophy of improving health outcomes and reducing healthcare costs, she is dedicated to using her vast experience and proven methodologies to drastically improve health care in the United States for millions of Americans.
