

BitForex Participated in 2018 Huaren Capital Global Conference in Philippines

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, AMERICA, December 5, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On November 29, 2018, the global conference of Huaren Capital was held in the Philippines. Bitforex vice President Garrett Jin was also invited to be a special guest at the event.

The goal of Huaren Capital is to establish a foothold in the Philippines, radiate services to the whole world, bring advanced technology and developed experience to the Philippines, lead Philippine enterprises to the world, and create value and wealth for filipinos. Jeff Wang, President of Huaren Capital, described the Philippines as a "very open and dynamic economy" and said he was optimistic about the Philippine market. With the comprehensive development of cryptocurrency technology, e-commerce is also developing or will develop faster. We want to take the Philippines to the forefront of global e-commerce.

"The development of the Huaren Capital in the cryptocurrency," the mayor of the Philippine city of pasai, "is a good way to build the future of the Philippines," and would like to be able to engage in unlimited exchanges and cooperation, to attract investors from all over the world to promote the development of the Manila economy, and to be very sure that the efficient development of financial technology will be a better development for Manila and the Philippines."

Openness, transparency, speed, innovation and safety are the core operating concepts of BitForex. In the span of a year, we have accumulated a number of good projects in various countries, and quickly acquired the core users, with more than 1.8 million registered users, and now one of the top ten digital currency exchanges in the world.

During the conference, Garrett Jin, the vice President of BitForex, gave a brief explanation of BitForex's history: "BitForex currently has more than 1.8 million users and the market is expanding from southeast Asia to North America and Europe. Although such achievements have been achieved in just one year, the whole blockchain industry is in the initial stage of development, so the development of BitForex is also in the initial stage. We still have a lot of space to improve and develop, so as to bring better services to customers. The Philippines is unique in South Asia and the whole world. In the future, stable coin and cryptocurrencies will play a very important role in such cross-border payments. Therefore, BitForex hopes to enter the Philippine market, which will be a very good development opportunity for both China and the Philippines.
