

Andrus Wagstaff names David Wool a Partner

DENVER, CO, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, December 5, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Denver, CO., December, 5 2018– Andrus Wagstaff, PC, is proud to announce that David Wool has become a Partner. David joined Andrus Wagstaff, PC, in February 2015. He has been an amazing asset to the Andrus Wagstaff Team.

“David Wool is an outstanding young trial lawyer who’s service to the Firm, particularly in handling scientific issues and briefing, has been of the highest caliber,” co-founding Partner Vance Andrus stated.

Wool represents clients in pharmaceutical and medical device mass tort litigation. In his practice at Andrus Wagstaff, Wool has been intricately involved in several major litigations. Wool was appointed to the Plaintiff’s Steering Committee (PSC) in multi-district litigation, In Re Fluoroquinolone Products Liability Litigation (MDL) 2642, by the Honorable John R. Tunheim to represent thousands of plaintiffs suffering from permanent and debilitating peripheral neuropathy. Wool also served in a critical role in MDL 2741, In Re Roundup Products Liability Litigation, where he successfully argued against the first preemption motion filed anywhere in the country setting the stage for continued litigation.

Wool graduated from Vanderbilt University Law School in 2011. Prior to joining Andrus Wagstaff, Wool gained invaluable trial experience practicing criminal law. As a criminal defense attorney, he won every case he took to trial including multiple felony cases.
