

California Lawyers Association names Paula Brunoro-Borokhov Vice-Chair of Young Tax Lawyers Committee Taxation Section

Paula Brunoro-Borokhov, tax attorney and international legal counsel, will serve tax lawyers that have been practicing for 10 years or less in California.

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, December 11, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The California Lawyers Association (CLA) is a nonprofit, voluntary organization dedicated to promoting excellence, diversity and inclusion in the legal profession and fairness in the administration of justice and the rule of law. Paula Brunoro-Borokhov, who has recently served as the Chair of Young Tax Lawyers Section of the San Diego CLA Chapter, will now be the Vice-Chair of the Young Tax Lawyers Committee of the CLA ("YTLC").

The YTLC works with regional chapters to provide education and support for new tax lawyers throughout California. The purpose of the YTLC is to provide opportunities for new tax lawyers to further their personal and professional development through participation in Taxation Section activities. Local chapters hold periodic meetings on current tax developments and facilitate educational talks on noteworthy tax topics while providing networking opportunities to meet fellow young tax attorneys and to meet more senior tax practitioners who often speak at the meetings. There are presently chapters in Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Diego, Silicon Valley and the San Francisco Bay Area.

Brunoro will participate in the various taxation-specific educational programs organized by the committee and serve as an extension of the Taxation Section to the Young Tax Lawyers Section. Her guidance and participation with these committees will also help her serve the greater legal community in San Diego where her practice operates.

I am honored to be nominated for this new role. I am excited to be a part of the YTLC to assist and promote the Taxation Section not only within San Diego but throughout the state of California.”
