Author Releases Website For His Poetry Collection

MIAMI, OKLAHOMA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, December 12, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Following the successful publication of The Poetry Of Bill W. Stoner, author Bill Stoner releases a website for his book. The website has features that are easy to navigate, giving readers the opportunity to get the latest from the author and all his works.

The book describes the author's life in the most creative way – his collection of poems. His journey through his life, in both happy and sad times is described in each poem. He allows every reader to see inside his soul and how his faith in God led him to where he is now.

The website brings the readers into the Home Page which entrances with a sophisticated background, bringing a tempestuous feel – describing the nature of the book. It shows the front cover of the book and a brief overview of what the book is all about as well as an author photo and a brief bio. The Book Page shows a more detailed description about the book and it is succeeded by the Author Page, which gives the readers specific information about the author himself. The Order Page shows the specifications of the book; Contact Page, which gives the readers an opportunity to relay comments, suggestions, and questions that they may have about the book.

As Stoner endeavors to bring the latest details for his avid readers, the website is updated regularly. The readers can expect first-hand information about the book and the author himself. Everyone is invited to check out his website: <http://www.footstepsthepoetryofbillwstoner.com/>
