

INDGF Announces End of Life Doula World Training Day April 20th, 2019

INDGF Launches World Training Day Where The Award Winning Doulagivers Level 1 EOLD Training Will be Offered in Over 100 Events in Over 10 Countries Worldwide.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, December 18, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, December 18, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- International Doulagivers foundation will hold "World Training Day" to help educate people around the world on how to care for their dying loved ones. "100 years ago, the skill of how to care for someone at the end of life was handed down generation to generation. This is something that is lost in our culture today and is contributing to much more suffering when we experience the end of life of someone close to us," said O'Brien.

On April 20th, 2019 the International Doulagivers Foundation will be presenting the Doulagivers Free Level 1 End of Life Doula Training in locations all around the world. "It is a great reminder that no matter where you live in the world, what culture, religion or socioeconomic status, we all are connected in this thing called end of life. We should and can be there for one another, sharing education and resources, and making the inevitable death experience as positive as possible," said O'Brien.

Anyone who is interested in the Death Positive Movement and helping to support and educate their community with this education is invited to host the Level 1 Training. The International Doulagivers Foundation in coordination with Doulagivers, will be supplying all educational materials and providing people with the entire Level 1 End of Life Doula Training presentation. Complete event training, setup and registration will be taken care of through the main website. Interested partners simply need to find a location and be passionate about making a positive change in end of life care for others.

"9/10 people say they want to be cared for at home if terminally ill, yet half die in the hospital or some other institution." -NHPCO Gallup Poll 1996

"Death is the 2nd leading fear in the U.S., but it is an inevitable part of the life journey. With the right kindness, education and support, death can be the natural sacred experience it was meant to be." -Suzanne B. O'Brien RN

The Doulagivers Level 1 End of Life Doula Training was created by experienced Hospice and Oncology nurse, Suzanne B. O'Brien RN and has been used by thousands of family caregivers and community volunteers around the world with wonderful success. The training teaches people the 3 Phases of End of Life, what they can expect and what they can do to support someone who is in each phase.

ABOUT THE INTERNATIONAL DOULAGIVERS FOUNDATION:

The goal of the International Doulagivers Foundation is to support communities worldwide with Free Level 1 End of Life Doula Community Caregiving Training. The training has been used by people in over eight countries. This is why INDGF has a global outreach program to share this training worldwide with anyone who would like to take it. INDGF knows that education and engagement are the keys to peaceful passing. World Training Day is a community-driven initiative sparked by the International Doulagivers Foundation, a new nonprofit organization whose purpose is to host a public education program that takes the fear out of end of life.

What People Have Said About The Doulagivers Level 1 End of Life Doula Training:

" Doulagivers Level 1 training was a Godsend for me and my friends. I found Suzanne's class while researching how to support a friend who was diagnosed with glioblastoma, an aggressive, terminal brain cancer. The class provides all the helpful information we needed to support our friend during his end of life experience. I gained so much through this course, that I ended up going back and donating money for the class! Do yourself a favor and take this course, and if you can, donate! It's more than worth it! Thank you Doulagivers and Suzanne for making a terrible loss a little less scary and much more profound." -Jana H. U.S.

"The FREE End of Life Doula Training Level 1 webinar was absolutely amazing. I love online studies and opportunities for personal growth and this course definitely has to be one of the very best I've had the chance to partake of to date. It is such important knowledge that I believe it should be included in every high school /university curriculum. Suzanne engages learners in a personable, compassionate and practical manner. She takes serious subjects and makes them empowering through providing knowledge and a skillset that anyone can employ for a more positive end of life experience either for themselves or when caring for those they love. I am forever grateful for this course and cannot recommend it highly enough."- Susan D. Thailand

"In Suzanne O'Brien's End of Life Doula Training Class, you will learn interventions to manage a continued state of comfort and peace for patients and loved ones. I was honored to take her class and am looking forward to utilizing the skills I learned for the benefit of this precious population."- Jill B. U.S.
